

Harlie and Maxine Adams

Harlie and Maxine Adams moved to Bledsoe, Texas in Cochran County from Canyon, Texas in February of 1965. The Adams have three daughters: Sherri Lynn, Terri Jean, and Kerri Joyce.

Harlie went to work for Cities Service Oil and Gas in 1966 at the Bluit Plant in Milensand, New Mexico. He worked at that plant until he was transferred to Canton, Texas in February 1983, where he was Plant Manager of the Myrtle Springs Plant. The Adams moved from Canton to Plain, Texas when Harlie was transferred to the Seminole Plant in February of 1985. Harlie returned to the Bluit Plant in October of 1985, where he is currently Plant Manager.

Harlie Adams served as a member of the Bledsoe School Board for over 10 years. All three of the Adams' daughters graduated from Bledsoe High School.

Sherri graduated in 1973 and went on to graduate from West Texas State University in Canyon, Texas. Sherri married Terry Davis, also of Bledsoe, in August of 1977. They now live in Kingfisher, Oklahoma, where Sherri is a kindergarten teacher and Terry works for Texas Oil and Gas. They have two children, Kyle Dustin was born in Amarillo, Texas in June of 1980 and Lacy Denay was born in Oklahoma City in June of 1983.

Terri graduated from Bledsoe High School in 1978 and went to college at South Plains College. Terri married Rodney Coffman, also of Bledsoe, in October of 1978. Rodney and Terri live in Bledsoe, Texas where Terri is a housewife and Rodney is employed by Cities Service Oil and Gas. They have two children. Kevin Lewis who was born in Lubbock, Texas in June of 1982 and Krista Nicole, also born in Lubbock, in June of 1985. Rodney and Terri are starting a business of their own, raising game birds.

Kerri graduated from high school in 1979. She went on to graduate from South Plains College in Secretarial Sciences. Kerri married Dale Hale, of Bledsoe, in April of 1980. They are currently living in Tatum, New Mexico, where Kerri is a housewife and Dale is employed by Cities Service Oil and Gas. They have two children. Lori Dawn was born in Lubbock, Texas in June of 1983 and Rusty Gene was born in Lubbock, Texas in December of 1985.

In 1969, Luther and Alice Neeley, Maxine's parents, moved to Bledsoe. They lived next door to the Adams and had a great influence on the three girls. Luther died in September of 1973. Alice moved to Amarillo, Texas in 1977, where she currently resides.

The Adams enjoyed all the activities provided by the school and church. They were very active in every area of their children's outside activities. They have always enjoyed being together as a family. They all enjoy golf, playing bridge, fishing, wood-work, and hunting arrowheads.

Harlie and Maxine currently live in Bledsoe, Texas, where they enjoy going to church and supporting the local activities.

Submitted by Maxine Adams.

Source: Cochran County Legacy Published 1986 by the Cochran County Historical Commission.