

Date unknown

Publication unknown

From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Mr. Martinez died September 11, 1992

Alfredo Martinez

A rosary for Alfredo Lopez Martinez, 81, of Morton was recited at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12 in Ellis Funeral Home Chapel.

Mass was celebrated at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 15 in St. Ann Catholic Church with the Rev. Elbert Fadallon, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Morton Memorial Cemetery.

He died Friday, Sept. 11 at 4:45 p.m. in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Sabinal and moved to Morton in 1940. He married Guadalupe Saenz on Oct. 29, 1932 in Ballinger. He was a farmer, a truck driver and a member of St. Ann Catholic Church. A son, Gilbert, died in 1957, and a daughter, Florence Lucero, died in 1966.

Survivors include his wife; six sons, Alex Sr., Jose Sr., Raymond Sr., David Sr. and Gilbert, all of Morton, and Alfredo Jr. of Whiteface; six daughters, Amy Sanchez, Lola Gonzalez, Eloisa Sepulbeda, Helen Grado and Diane Martinez, all of Morton, and Josie Elizondo of Levelland; one sister, Benina Morales of Morton; one brother, Nieves of Fort Worth; 39 grandchildren; and 40 great grandchildren.

Alfredo Martinez

A rosary for Alfredo Lopez Martinez, 81, of Morton was recited at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12 in Ellis Funeral Home Chapel.

Mass was celebrated at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 15 in St. Ann Catholic Church with the Rev. Elbert Fadallon, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Morton Memorial Cemetery.

He died Friday, Sept. 11 at 4:45 p.m. in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Sabinal and moved to Morton in 1940. He married Guadalupe Saenz on Oct. 29, 1932 in Ballinger. He was a farmer, a truck driver and a member of St. Ann Catholic Church. A son, Gilbert, died in 1957, and a daughter, Florence Lucero died in 1966.

Survivors include his wife; six sons, Alex Sr., Jose Sr., Raymond Sr., David Sr. and Gilbert, all of Morton, and Alfredo Jr. of Whiteface; six daughters, Amy Sanchez, Lola Gonzalez, Eloisa Sepulbeda, Helen Grado and Diane Martinez, all of Morton, and Josie Elizondo of Levelland; one sister, Benina Morales of Morton; one brother, Nieves of Fort Worth; 39 grandchildren; and 40 great grandchildren.

Back to Obituary Index