

Mrs. McClure Death Victim

LAMESA, May 25 (Special) — Mrs. Annie McClure, long-time resident of Lamesa, died late tonight in a Lamesa hospital, where she had been a patient three weeks.

During the past year she has been living with a daughter, Mrs. Ollie Smith, near Morton. She previously had lived here 17 years.

Last rites will be read in Higginbotham chapel by Rev. E. F. Cole, Lamesa Baptist pastor, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rix Funeral home of Lubbock will direct burial in Lamesa cemetery. Surviving are five sons, C. W. McClure of Lamesa, L. V. McClure of the Navy, J. D. McClure of Waterford, Calif., and Cephus and George Irons of San Francisco; two brothers, two sisters, 18 grandchildren, a grandchild and the Morton daughter.

Mrs. McClure Death Victim

LAMESA, May 25 (Special) — Mrs. Annie McClure, long-time resident of Lamesa, died late tonight in a Lamesa hospital, where she had been a patient three weeks.

During the past year she has been living with a daughter, Mrs. Ollie Smith, near Morton. She previously had lived here 17 years.

Last rites will be read in Higginbotham chapel by Rev. E. F. Cole, Lamesa Baptist pastor, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rix Funeral home of Lubbock will direct burial in Lamesa cemetery. Surviving are five sons, C. W. McClure of Lamesa, L. V. McClure of the Navy, J. D. McClure of Waterford, Calif., and Cephus and George Irons of San Francisco; two brothers, two sisters, 18 grandchildren, a grandchild and the Morton daughter.

Back to Obituary Index