

Publication name unknown

Publication date unknown – Mrs. Cox died in 1944

Source: “Newspaper Clippings” file at Texas’ Last Frontier Historical Museum, Morton, Texas

Mrs. Henry Cox Is Claimed By Death Monday

Last rites were read Tuesday afternoon in First Baptist church for Mrs. Henry Cox, who died at 3:45 Monday afternoon at her home in Morton. Rev. J. W. Watson of Crosbyton officiated, assisted by Rev. W. B. Swim, Rev. W. E. Lovelace, and Rev. Jack Bullard.

Mrs. Cox, whose maiden name was Cornie Anna Ingle, was born at Hubbard Springs, Virginia, January 3, 1878. She was married Dec. 12, 1901 to Henry Cox, who preceded her in death three years ago. She is survived by four children; Seaman Herman Cox of San Francisco, Willard Cox of Morton, Pvt. English Cox of Fort Bliss, and Miss Minnie Cox of Morton. All four were at her bedside at the time of her death. Other survivors are three brothers, John, Alvin, and Ed Ingle, all of Estancia, N. M.; three grandchildren, Caroline, Merlyne, and Minnie Ola Cox of Morton, and an aunt, Mrs. D. H. McDonald, of Estancia, who was with Mrs. Cox all through her recent illness.

Mrs. Cox succumbed to a heart ailment. She had been seriously ill since April 24 of this year.

She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and has many friends who join the survivors to mourn her passing.

Burial was made in the Morton cemetery with Singleton Funeral home in charge.

Mrs. Henry Cox Is Claimed By Death Monday

Last rites were read Tuesday afternoon in First Baptist church for Mrs. Henry Cox, who died at 3:45 Monday afternoon at her home in Morton. Rev. J. W. Watson of Crosbyton officiated, assisted by Rev. W. B. Swim, Rev. W. E. Lovelace, and Rev. Jack Bullard.

Mrs. Cox, whose maiden name was Cornie Anna Ingle, was born at Hubbard Springs, Virginia, January 3, 1878. She was married Dec. 12, 1901 to Henry Cox, who preceded her in death three years ago. She is survived by four children; Seaman Herman Cox of San Francisco, Willard Cox of Morton, Pvt. English Cox of Fort Bliss, and Miss Minnie Cox of Morton. All four were at her bedside at the time of her death. Other survivors are three brothers, John, Alvin, and Ed Ingle, all of Estancia, N. M.; three grandchildren, Caroline, Merlyne, and Minnie Ola Cox of Morton, and an aunt, Mrs. D. H. McDonald, of Estancia, who was with Mrs. Cox all through her recent illness.

Mrs. Cox succumbed to a heart ailment. She had been seriously ill since April 24 of this year.

She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and has many friends who join the survivors to mourn her passing.

Burial was made in the Morton cemetery with Singleton Funeral home in charge.

Back to Obituary Index