

Morton Man Dies in Lubbock Hospital

MORTON, March 2. (Special) — C. D. Griffith, 27, who died Tuesday afternoon in the Lubbock General hospital, will be buried in the local cemetery following a funeral service here, probably tomorrow. Mr. Morton moved from Brownfield to Morton about two years ago. He has lived in this vicinity for 25 years.

He is survived by his widow; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Griffith, Brownfield; five brothers, J. K., E. C., and Ray Griffith of Brownfield, H. D. Griffith of California; and four sisters, Mrs. Ruby Mawheany of Kansas City, Mrs. Gabe Bloom of Brownfield, Miss Virginia Griffith of Brownfield; and Mrs. Bill Lowery of San Antonio.

Continued on next page

GRIFFITH RITES HELD
MORTON, Mar. 3 (Special) —
Funeral services for C. D. Griffith, 27, who died Tuesday night in Lubbock General hospital, were held this afternoon in Primitive Baptist church here, with Rix Funeral home, Lubbock, in charge.
Griffith moved from Brownfield to Morton about two years ago. He had lived in this general vicinity for 25 years.

GRIFFITH RITES HELD

MORTON, Mar. 3 (Special) — Funeral services for C. D. Griffith, 27, who died Tuesday night in Lubbock General hospital, were held this afternoon in Primitive Baptist church here, with Rix Funeral home, Lubbock, in charge.

Griffith moved from Brownfield to Morton about two years ago. He had lived in this general vicinity for 25 years.

Back to Obituary Index