

Dona Doughty

MORTON (Special) — Services for Dona M. Doughty, 80, of Tyler and formerly of Morton, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Franklin-Bartley Chapel with the Rev. Carlton Thomson, pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Resthaven Memorial Park under the direction of Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home of Lubbock.

Mrs. Doughty died at 11:53 p.m. Monday in Tyler Medical Center Hospital after a lengthy illness.

The Montague County native moved to Tyler in 1975 from Morton, where she had lived since 1942. She farmed and ranched in the Morton area until her retirement in 1975. She was active in the Democratic Party in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. She was a member of Pollard United Methodist Church in Tyler.

Survivors include two daughters, Cleta Haley of Tyler and Virginia Lee McClintock of Sweetwater; a brother, Robert Masten of Lubbock; a sister, Ola McClure of Hereford; five grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Bob Haley Jr., Steve McClintock, Larry McClintock, Roger McClintock, Dwayne Mauldin and William B. Parrack.

Dona Doughty

MORTON (Special) – Services for Dona M. Doughty, 80, of Tyler and formerly of Morton, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Franklin-Bartley Chapel with the Rev. Carlton Thomson, pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Resthaven Memorial Park under the direction of Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home of Lubbock.

Mrs. Doughty died at 11:53 p.m. Monday in Tyler Medical Center Hospital after a lengthy illness.

The Montague County native moved to Tyler in 1975 from Morton, where she had lived since 1942. She farmed and ranched in the Morton area until her retirement in 1975. She was active in the Democratic Party in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. She was a member of Pollard United Methodist Church in Tyler.

Survivors include two daughters, Cleta Haley of Tyler and Virginia Lee McClintock of Sweetwater; a brother, Robert Masten of Lubbock; a sister, Ola McClure of Hereford; five grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Bob Haley Jr., Steve McClintock, Larry McClintock, Roger McClintock, Dwayne Mauldin, and William B. Parrack.

Back to Obituary Index