

Morton Rites Set For City Woman

Funeral services will be read at 3 p. m. Wednesday from the Morton First Baptist Church for Mrs. Elisa A. Russell, 54, of 3110 Harvard St. Burial will be in Stamford, under direction of Bill Kinney Funeral Home.

Mrs. Russell died at 2:40 a. m. today at the residence. She had lived in Lubbock about three years, moving here from Morton. The body was at Rix Funeral Home.

A daughter, Mrs. Jobeth Hill of the same address, was visiting friends in Plainview at the time of the death. She learned of her mother's death when at breakfast and immediately left for Lubbock. Mrs. Hill's whereabouts had been uncertain earlier in the morning, since she had planned to visit friends and relatives in several South Plains towns before her return.

Mrs. Russell is survived by two sons, Jack Russell and Lewis Russell, both of 3110 Harvard St.; the two daughters, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. C. D. Chesshir of Morton; a sister, Mrs. C. R. Taylor, Stamford; one brother, William D. Rhea, Houston, and two grandsons.

Morton Rites Set For City Woman

Funeral services will be read at 3 p.m. Wednesday from the Morton First Baptist Church for Mrs. Elisa A. Russell, 54, of 3110 Harvard St. Burial will be in Stamford, under direction of Bill Kinney Funeral Home.

Mrs. Russell died at 2:40 a. m. today at the residence. She had lived in Lubbock about three years, moving here from Morton.

The body was at Rix Funeral Home.

A daughter, Mrs. Jobeth Hill of the same address, was visiting friends in Plainview at the time of the death. She learned of her mother's death when at breakfast and immediately left for Lubbock. Mrs. Hill's whereabouts had been uncertain earlier in the morning, since she had planned to visit friends and relatives in several South Plains towns before her return.

Mrs. Russell is survived by two sons, Jack Russell and Lewis Russell, both of 3110 Harvard St.; the two daughters, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. C. D. Chesshir of Morton; a sister, Mrs. C. R. Taylor, Stamford; one brother, William D. Rhea, Houston, and two grandsons.

Back to Obituary Index