

Publication unknown
Sunday, October 27, 1996
From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Sunday, October 27, 1996

Obituaries

Ernest Trull

WHITEFACE (Special) — Services for Ernest Trull, 62, of Bledsoe will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Whiteface School Gymnasium with the Revs. J.L. Bass and Harold Harrison officiating. Burial will be in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Trull died Friday, Oct. 25, 1996, at Cochran Memorial Hospital.

He was born April 5, 1934, in Earth. He married Doris Stroud on Feb. 27, 1959, in Spade. He moved to Bledsoe from Sudan in 1962. He was a U.S. Army veteran, and he received the Farm Family of the Year Award in 1984. He was a past board member of the Bledsoe school system and the Soil & Water Conservation District, and he was a board member and director of Fivearea Telephone Co-Op. He was a Cochran County ASCS Committeeman, and he was a member of the Morton Lions Club and Bledsoe Baptist Church.

He was a farmer, and he managed the Sunmark Grain Elevator. A son, Perry Wayne, died Dec. 8, 1992.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Rusty of Bledsoe; two daughters, Gayla Zuber of Whiteface and Marla Trull of Levelland; a sister, Pat Hall of Arlington; five brothers, Tom and Bill, both of Arlington, Ben Frank of Commerce, Joe of Lorenzo and Neal of Granbury; and seven grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to First Baptist Church Youth Group of Whiteface.

Continued on next page

Publication unknown
Sunday, October 27, 1996
From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Ernest Trull

WHITEFACE (Special) – Services for Ernest Trull, 62, of Bledsoe will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Whiteface School Gymnasium with the Revs. J. L. Bass and Harold Harrison officiating.

Burial will be in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Trull died Friday, Oct. 25, 1996, at Cochran Memorial Hospital.

He was born April 5, 1953 in Earth. He married Doris Stroud on Feb. 27, 1959, in Spade. He moved to Bledsoe from Sudan in 1962. He was a U. S. Army veteran, and he received the Farm Family of the Year Award in 1984. He was a past board member of the Bledsoe school system and the Soil & Water Conservation District, and he was a board member and director of Fivearea Telephone Co-Op. He was a Cochran County ASCS Committeeman, and he was a member of the Morton Lions Club and Bledsoe Baptist Church.

He was a farmer, and he managed the Sunmark Grain Elevator. A son, Perry Wayne, died Dec. 8, 1992.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Rusty of Bledsoe; two daughters, Gayla Zuber of Whiteface and Marla Trull of Levelland, a sister, Pat Hall of Arlington; five brothers, Tom and Bill, both of Arlington, Ben Frank of Commerce, Joe of Lorenzo and Neal of Granbury; seven grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to First Baptist Church Youth Group of Whiteface.

Continued on next page

Long time Bledsoe resident, Ernest Trull dies

Long time farmer-rancher Ernest Trull, 62, of Bledsoe died from the result of a heart attack, Friday, Oct. 25, 1996, at the Cochran County Hospital.

He was born April 5, 1934, in Earth. He married Doris Stroud on Feb. 27, 1959, in Spade. He moved to Bledsoe from Sudan in 1962. He was a U.S. Army veteran and he received the Farm Family of the Year Award in 1984.

He was a past board member of the Bledsoe School system and the Soil & Water Conservation District, and he was a board member and director of Five Area Telephone Co-op.

He was a Cochran County ASCS Committeeman, and he was a member of the Morton Lions Club and Bledsoe Baptist Church. He also managed the Sunmark Grain Elevator in Bledsoe. His son, Perry Wayne, died Dec. 8, 1992.

Survivors include his wife Doris; a son, Rusty of Whiteface; two daughters, Gayla Zuber of Whiteface and Marla Trull of Levelland; a sister, Pat Trull of Arlington; five brothers, Tom and Bill, both of Arlington, Ben Frank of Commerce, Joe of Lorenzo and Neal of Grandbury; and seven grandchildren.

Services were held Monday at 11 a.m. at the Whiteface School Gymnasium with Revs. J.L. Bass and Harold Harrison officiating.

Burial was held at the Morton Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Long Time Bledsoe resident, Ernest Trull dies

Long time farmer-rancher Ernest Trull, 62, of Bledsoe died from the result of a heart attack, Friday, Oct. 25, 1996, at the Cochran County Hospital.

He was born April 5, 1934 in Earth. He married Doris Stroud on Feb. 27, 1959 in Spade. He moved to Bledsoe from Sudan in 1962. He was a U. S. Army veteran and he received the Farm Family of the Year Award in 1984.

He was a past board member of the Bledsoe School system and the Soil & Water Conservation District, and he was a board member and direct of Five Area Telephone Co-op.

He was a Cochran County ASCS Committeeman, and he was a member of the Morton Lions Club and Bledsoe Baptist Church He also managed the Sunmark Grain Elevator in Bledsoe. His son, Perry Wayne, died Dec. 8, 1992.

Survivors include his wife Doris; a son, Rusty of Whiteface; two daughters, Gayla Zuber of Whiteface and Marla Trull of Levelland; a sister, Pat Trull of Arlington; five brothers, Tom and Bill, both of Arlington, Ben Frank of Commerce, Joe of Lorenzo and Neal of Grandbury; and seven grandchildren.

Services were held Monday at 11 a.m. at the Whiteface School Gymnasium with Revs. J. L. Bass and Harold Harrison officiating.

Burial was held at the Morton Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Back to Obituary Index