

Morton Woman Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. S. L. McIlroy, 59, died at her home in Morton early Wednesday afternoon following several weeks illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Morton High school auditorium. K. C. Moser, Lubbock Church of Christ minister, will officiate. Burial will be in Morton cemetery, under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Survivors include her husband; her mother, Mrs. N. E. Coleman of Morton; four brothers, John Coleman of Lubbock, Henry Coleman of Circle Back, Willie Coleman of Roswell, N. M., Tome Coleman of Melrose, N. M.; five sister, Mrs. A. L. Gregg of Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. Exer McCollum of Lubbock. Mrs. Minnie Reynolds of Belin, N. M., Mrs. C. D. Henderson of Monroe, La., Mrs. Jack Nelson of Roswell, N. M.; one son, Harley McIlroy of Goldsraith; four daughters, Mrs. Huggo Lipp and Mrs. Edwin Taylor of Dallas, Mrs. T. W. McCollum of Portales, N. M., Mrs. Frank White of Rising Starl and four grandchildren.

Back to Obituary Index