

Mrs. Bernice Abbe Dies At Hale Center

HALE CENTER, March 7 (Special)—Mrs. Ida Bernice Abbe, 77, who moved here from Goodland only four weeks ago, died shortly after noon today at her home. A native of Young County, she had lived on the plains for a number of years, formerly residing at Morton.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Morton Church of Christ at 2:30 p. m. Monday. Burial, under the direction of Rix Funeral Home of Lubbock, will be in Morton Cemetery. Her grandsons will serve as palibearers.

Mrs. Abbe leaves her husband of 53 years, J. M. Abbe; two sons, John M. Abbe Jr. of Hale Center and H. B. Abbe of Morton; two daughters, Mrs. C. R. Williams of Hale Center and Mrs. H. E. Kirby of Goodland; a brother, C. K. Holt of Muleshoe; 18 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Bernice Abbe Dies At Hale Center

HALE CENTER, March 7 (Special) – Mrs. Ida Bernice Abbe, 77, who moved here from Goodland only four weeks ago, died shortly after noon today at her home. A native of Young County, she had lived on the plains for a number of years, formerly residing at Morton.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Morton Church of Christ at 2:30 p. m. Monday. Burial, under the direction of Rix Funeral Home of Lubbock, will be in Morton Cemetery. Her grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Mrs. Abbe leaves her husband of 53 years, J. M. Abbe, two sons, John M. Abbe Jr. of Hale Center, and H. B. Abbe of Morton; two daughters, Mrs. C. R. Williams of Hale Center and Mrs. H. E. Kirby of Goodland; a brother, C. K. Holt of Muleshoe; 18 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Continued on next page

Lubbock Morning Avalanche
Monday, March 9, 1953
Page 10, Section II

Funeral services for Mrs. Bernice Abbe, 77, who recently moved to Hale Center from Goodland and who died Saturday at her Hale Center home, will be conducted at the Morton Church of Christ at 2:30 p.m. today. Burial will be in Morton Cemetery under the direction of Rix Funeral Home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bernice Abbe, 77, who recently moved to Hale Center from Goodland and who died Saturday at her Hall Center home, will be conducted at the Morton Church of Christ at 2:30 p.m. today. Burial will be in Morton Cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral Home.

Back to Obituary Index