

Morton Man Buried Tuesday Afternoon

MORTON, Aug. 25. (Special) — Body of James Alfred Deaton, 83, was buried in Morton cemetery this afternoon after last rites in the Primitive Baptist church here with a Crosbyton minister officiating.

Mr. Deaton was born June 14, 1859. He was married to Miss Lula Amanda Cavnar in Red River county in 1885.

Nine children survive: Thomas S. Deaton, Odessa; William Lee Deaton and E. Deaton, Dumas; Mrs. Jennie Bell Tomlin, Morton; James Deaton; Rhoadia Gertrude Deaton, Morton; George Dudley Deaton of Southern California; and Aurie and Laurie, twins, of Morton. Numerous grandchildren and some great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Singleton Funeral home.

Morton Man Buried Tuesday Afternoon

MORTON, Aug. 25. (Special) — Body of James Alfred Deaton, 83, was buried in Morton cemetery this afternoon after last rites in the Primitive Baptist church here with a Crosbyton minister officiating.

Mr. Deaton was born June 14, 1859. He was married to Miss Lula Amanda Cavnar in Red River county in 1885.

Nine children survive: Thomas S. Deaton, Odessa; William Lee Deaton and E. Deaton, Dumas; Mrs. Jennie Bell Tomlin, Morton; James Deaton; Rhoadia Gertrude Deaton, Morton; George Dudley Deaton of Southern California; and Aurie and Laurie, twins, of Morton. Numerous grandchildren and some great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Singleton Funeral home.

Back to Obituary Index