

Publication unknown, date unknown
From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Gonzalez officiating.

Burial was in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Head Family Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Gilbert Lopez, Joel Lopez, Jesse Lopez, Pete Lopez, Jr., Jesse Mendoza, and Andy Franco. Honorary pallbearers were his uncles.

He died Wednesday, Feb. 28, 2001 in Morton.

Lopez was born April 24, 1974 in Littlefield.

He was a lifetime Texan and had lived in Morton all of his life. He was a construction worker with Birchwood Construction Co. of Levelland. He was an active member of the Dallas Cowboy Fan Club. He was a Baptist.

He was preceded in death by his father, Pedro Lopez, Sr., in November of 1999.

Survivors include his mother, Reyna Palma Lopez of Morton; two daughters, Destiny and Desiree, both of Lubbock; a son, Jose Alfredo Lopez, Jr. of Lubbock; four sisters: Christina Mendoza and Naomi Lopez, both of Morton; Gladys Lopez of Levelland; and Joy Smith of Artesia, NM; and four brothers: Gilbert, Joel, Pete Jr., and Jesse, all of Morton.

Jose A. Lopez

Services for Jose Alfredo "Freddie" Lopez, 26, of Morton were held Saturday, Mar. 3, 2001 at Primera Misión Bautista Church in Morton with Pedro Acosta, Bobby Soliz, and Freddy

Continued on next page

Publication unknown, date unknown
From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Jose A. Lopez

Services for Jose Alfred "Freddie" Lopez, 26, of Morton were held Saturday, Mar. 3, 2001 at Primera Mision Bautista Church in Morton with Pedro Acosta, Bobby Soliz, and Freddy Gonzalez officiating.

Burial was in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Head Family Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Gilbert Lopez, Joel Lopez, Jesse Lopez, Pete Lopez, Jr., Jesse Mendoza, and Andy Franco. Honorary pallbearers were his uncles.

He died Wednesday, Feb. 28, 2001 in Morton.

Lopez was born April 24, 1974 in Littlefield.

He was a lifetime Texas and had lived in Morton all of his life. He was a construction worker with Birchwood Construction Co. of Levelland. He was an active member of the Dallas Cowboy Fan Club. He was a Baptist.

He was preceded in death by his father, Pedro Lopez, Sr. in November of 1999.

Survivors include his mother, Reyna Palma Lopez of Morton, two daughters, Destiny and Desiree, both of Lubbock; a son, Jose Alfredo Lopez, Jr. of Lubbock; four sisters: Christina Mendoza and Naomi Lopez, both of Morton; Gladys Lopez of Levelland, and Joy Smith of Artesia, NM, and four brothers: Gilbert, Joel, Pete Jr., and Jesse, all of Morton.

Back to Obituary Index