

Standefer Rites Set Today At Plainview PLAINVIEW, Dec. 14. (Special) —Final rites for James Clayton Standefer, 52, rancher of Floyd, N. M., and formerly of Lubbock and Morton, will be conducted at 3 p. m. Friday in the chapel of Wood Funeral home here. Burial will be in the Plainview cemetery. Standefer died in Amarillo Mon-	day. He is survived by his wife; five daughters, Mrs. Carlton Lee of Ft. Sumner, N. M., Mrs. Jimmy Chunn of Bledsoe, Mrs. Jack Moore of Elida, N. M., Mrs. Webbie Starr of Floyd, Miss Billie Jo Standefer of Norman, Okla.; three sons, Bud of Los Angeles, Joe Bob and Bullett of Floyd.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Standefer Rites Set Today At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 14. (Special) — Final rites for James Clayton Standefer, 52, rancher of Floyd, N. M., and formerly of Lubbock and Morton, will be conducted at 3 p. m. Friday in the chapel of Wood Funeral home here. Burial will be in the Plainview cemetery.

Standefer died in Amarillo Monday.

He is survived by his wife; five daughters, Mrs. Carlton Lee of Ft. Sumner, N. M., Mrs. Jimmy Chunn of Bledsoe, Mrs. Jack Moore of Elida, N. M., Mrs. Webbie Starr of Floyd, Miss Billie Jo Standefer of Norman, Okla.; three sons, Bud of Los Angeles, Joe Bob and Bullett of Floyd.

Back to Obituary Index