

J. T. Phillips Dies Today

MORTON (Special) — J. T. Phillips, longtime South Plains resident and former cowboy on the Matador and Swenson ranches, died in Cochran County hospital this morning, on his 75th birthday.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in Missionary Baptist Church here with the Rev. Austin Stedman, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be at 4 p.m. Thursday in Jayton Cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Phillips had been in the hospital a month. He lived 4 miles northeast of Morton and had been a Cochran County resident 23 years.

Worked On Ranches

He moved here from Lamb County and was a retired farmer.

At one time Phillips had worked on the Matador and Swenson ranches. He was born in Iredell April 8, 1884.

He and his wife, who survives, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Oct. 14, 1955.

Other survivors are a son, Chas. O. Phillips of Morton; two sisters, Mrs. Addie Hill of Meridian and Mrs. Mattie Huey of Electra; a brother, J. W. Phillips of Littlefield and 4 grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Pat Hatcher, Truman Smith, Thurman Smith, Ollie Smith, Junior Cooper and J. N. Burnett.

Continued on next page

J. T. Phillips Dies Today

MORTON (Special) – J. T. Phillips, longtime South Plains resident and former cowboy on the Matador and Swenson ranches, died in Cochran County hospital this morning, on his 75th birthday.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in Missionary Baptist Church here with the Rev. Austin Stedman, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be at 4 p.m. Thursday in Jayton Cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Phillips had been in the hospital a month. He lived 4 miles northeast of Morton and had been a Cochran County resident 23 years.

Worked On Ranches

He moved here from Lamb County and was a retired farmer.

At one time Phillips had worked on the Matador and Swenson ranches. He was born in Iredell April 8, 1884.

He and his wife, who survives, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Oct. 14, 1957.

Other survivors are a son, Chas. O. Phillips of Morton; two sisters, Mrs. Addie Hill of Meridian and Mrs. Mattie Huey of Electra; a brother, J. W. Phillips of Littlefield and 4 grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Pat Hatcher, Truman Smith, Thurman Smith, Ollie Smith, Junior Cooper and J. N. Cooper.

Continued on next page

J. T. Phillips Rites Planned At Morton

MORTON (Special) — J. T. Phillips, longtime South Plains resident and former cowboy on the Matador and Swenson ranches, died in Cochran County Hospital Wednesday on his 75th birthday.

Funeral services were to be held at 10 a.m. today in the Missionary Baptist Church here with the Rev. Austin Stedman, pastor, officiating. Burial was to be at 4 p.m. today in the Japton Cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Phillips had been confined to the hospital for a month. He resided four miles northeast of here and had been a Cochran County resident for 23 years.

He moved here from Lamb County and was a retired farmer. At one time, Phillips worked on the Matador and Swenson ranches. He was born in Iredell.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Chas. O. Phillips, Morton; two sisters, Mrs. Addie Hill, Meridian; and Mrs. Mattie Huey, Electra; a brother, J. W. Phillips, Littlefield and four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were to be aPt Hatcher, Truman Smith, Thurman Smith, Ollie Smith, Junior Cooper and J. N. Burnett.

J. T. Phillips Rites Planned At Morton

MORTON (Special) – J. T. Phillips, longtime South Plains resident and former cowboy on the Matador and Swenson ranches, died in Cochran County Hospital Wednesday on his 75th birthday.

Funeral services were to be held at 10 a.m. today in the Missionary Baptist Church here with the Rev. Austin Stedman, pastor, officiating. Burial was to be at 4 p.m. today in the Japton Cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Phillips had been confined to the hospital for a month. He resided four miles northeast of here and had been a Cochran County resident for 23 years.

He moved here from Lamb County and was a retired farmer. At one time, Phillips worked on the Matador and Swenson ranches. He was born in Iredell.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Chas. O. Phillips, Morton; two sisters, Mrs. Addie Hill, Meridian; and Mrs. Mattie Huey, Electra; a brother, J. W. Phillips, Littlefield and four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were to be aPt [sic] Hatcher, Truman Smith, Thurman Smith, Ollie Smith, Junior Cooper and J. N. Burnett.

Back to Obituary Index