

John Weston Buried Monday
In Morton; Died On Sunday

John Weston, 50, was buried at Morton, his home, Monday afternoon, directed by Sanders Funeral home. Death, at 3:45 p. m. Sunday in a sanitarium here, was attributed to a blood stream infection and concluded an illness of 22 days.

Mr. Weston was survived by his widow; three sons, Cecil J., Weldon Ray, and T. C. Weston, all of near Morton; one daughter, Mary Kate Weston of Morton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Weston of Caddo Mills; three brothers, Charles of Idalou, Tom of Dallas, and Mack of Farmersville; three sisters, Mrs. T. W. Winsett and Mrs. R. Winsett of Farmersville, and Mrs. Daisy Skeeters, Merritt, Texas.

John Weston Buried Monday In Morton; Died On Sunday

John Weston, 50, was buried at Morton, his home, Monday afternoon, directed by Sanders Funeral home. Death at 3:45 p.m. Sunday in a sanitarium here, was attributed to a blood stream infection and concluded an illness of 22 days.

Mr. Weston was survived by his widow; three sons, Cecil J., Weldon Ray, and T. C. Weston, all of near Morton; one daughter, Mary Kate Weston of Morton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Weston of Caddo, Mills; three brothers, Charles of Idalou, Tom of Dallas, and Mack of Farmersville; three sisters, Mrs. T. W. Winsett and Mrs. R. Winsett of Farmersville and Mrs. Daisy Skeeters, Mertitt, Texas.

Back to Obituary Index