

Rites Are Held For Lightning Victims

MORTON, July 10. (Special)—A double funeral service was held at the Baptist church here at 5 p. m. today for James Lowe, 24, and John Wayne Millar, about 14, both killed instantly by lightning while driving tractors on a farm 20 miles northwest of here Tuesday afternoon.

Burial was in Morton cemetery under direction of Singleton funeral home.

Lowe was a veteran, formerly stationed at Lubbock Army Air field. Young Millar was his nephew. Lowe is survived by his parents, wife and baby daughter. Millar's survivors include his parents.

Among relatives attending the service from Lubbock were Mrs. Hope Rush, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Lowe; John Rush, who was visiting here at the time of the mishap; Mrs. George Long who lives on the Tahoka highway, and Elmer, Arlie and Hughie Rush of Acuff, near Lubbock.

Newell G. Rush, former employe of the Lubbock post office, now of Hanford, Calif., brother of Mrs. Lowe, was unable to attend.

Rites Are Held For Lightning Victims

MORTON, July 10, (Special) – A double funeral service was held at the Baptist church here at 5 p. m. today for James Lowe, 24, and John Wayne Millar, about 14, both killed instantly by lightning while driving tractors on a farm 20 miles northwest of here Tuesday afternoon.

Burial was in Morton cemetery under direction of Singleton funeral home.

Lowe was a veteran, formerly stationed at Lubbock Army Air field. Young Millar was his nephew. Lowe is survived by his parents, wife and baby daughter. Millar's survivors include his parents.

Among relatives attending the service from Lubbock were Mrs. Hope Rush, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Lowe; John Rush, who was visiting here at the time of the mishap; Mrs. George Long who lives on the Tahoka highway, and Elmer Arlie and Hughie Rush of Acuff, near Lubbock.

Newell G. Rush, former employe of the Lubbock post office, now of Hanford, Calif., brother of Mrs. Lowe, was unable to attend.

Back to Obituary Index