

Funeral For Morton Attorney Set Today

MORTON, Nov. 11 (Special)—Last rites for Lloyd Kennedy, about 49, prominent Morton attorney who died in Hermann hospital in Houston at 2 a. m. Sunday, were planned for 3 o'clock this afternoon in Morton First Baptist church.

Mr. Kennedy, who had served as Cochran county attorney for five terms, was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Morton Blue lodge and the El Paso consistory. He was a Baptist.

He had been in bad health for more than a year. His death was attributed to a heart ailment.

Mrs. Kennedy had gone to his bedside several days before his death. She returned to Lubbock by plane. The body was to arrive by train in Lubbock late tonight. Singleton Funeral home was to take the body to Morton.

Burial was to be in Morton cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral home. A Masonic service was planned.

Survivors include the widow, two children, Katherine, 11, and Dickie, 9; two brothers and a sister.

Funeral For Morton Attorney Set Today

MORTON, Nov. 11 (Special) – Last rites for Lloyd Kennedy, about 49, prominent Morton attorney who died in Hermann hospital in Houston at 2 a.m. Sunday, were planned for 3 o'clock this afternoon in Morton First Baptist church.

Mr. Kennedy, who had served as Cochran county attorney for five terms, was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Morton Blue lodge and the El Paso consistory. He was a Baptist.

He had been in bad health for more than a year. His death was attributed to heart ailment.

Mrs. Kennedy had gone to his bedside several days before his death. She returned to Lubbock by plane. The body was to arrive by train in Lubbock late tonight. Singleton Funeral home was to take the body to Morton.

Burial was to be in Morton cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral home. A Masonic service was planned.

Survivors include the widow, two children, Katherine, 11, and Dickie, 9; two brothers and a sister.

Back to Obituary Index