

Morton Resident's Rites Still Pending MORTON (Special) — Funeral services for Nath Crockett, 65, who died at Cochran County Hospital here Sunday night, will be announced by Singleton Funeral Home. Crockett, a member of the Morton fire department about 25 years and a former Ballinger resi-	dent, was a member of the Methodist Church. He had been a Morton resident 26 years. Survivors include the wife; one son, Herman Crockett, Elwood, Kan.; three daughters, Mrs. R. P. McCall, Enochs; Mrs. H. C. Moudy, Elwood; and Mrs. Don Bridges, Lubbock; four sisters,	Mrs. Clyde Fowler, Dallas; Mrs. Thelma Hines, Dallas; Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Dallas; and Mrs. Jack Carwile, Ballinger; three brothers, J. S. Crockett, Albuquerque; and Ell and Awalt Crockett, both of Winters; and 11 grandchildren. <hr/> Yugoslavia's milk production has been boosted 12 per cent to record heights.
--	---	--

Morton Resident's Rites Still Pending

MORTON (Special) — Funeral services for Nath Crockett, 65, who died at Cochran County Hospital here Sunday night, will be announced by Singleton Funeral Home.

Crockett, a member of the Morton fire department about 25 years and a former Ballinger resident, was a member of the Methodist Church. He had been a Morton resident 26 years.

Survivors include the wife; one son, Herman Crockett, Elwood, Kan.; three daughters, Mrs. R. P. McCall, Enochs; Mrs. H. C. Moudy, Elwood; and Mrs. Don Bridges, Lubbock; four sisters, Mrs. Clyde Fowler, Dallas; Mrs. Thelma Hines, Dallas; Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Dallas; and Mrs. Jack Carwile, Ballinger; three brothers, J. S. Crockett, Albuquerque; and Ell and Awalt Crockett, both of Winters; and 11 grandchildren.

Back to Obituary Index