

Curtis Funeral Is Held At Morton

MORTON, April 2. (Special) — Funeral services for Oscar R. Curtis, 41, of Morton, who died March 30, were conducted from the Morton High school auditorium Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Reverend E. M. Jennings, pastor of Lubbock Cumberland Presbyterian church, conducted the rites with Masons assisting.

He is survived by his widow, daughter, four brothers, three sisters, and his mother. Services had been delayed by inability of sisters and brothers living in California to get to Morton sooner.

Curtis, former garage owner of Ralls, two years ago moved to Morton, where he owned a garage. He served in the navy in the World war.

Curtis Funeral Is Held At Morton

MORTON, April 2 (Special) — Funeral services for Oscar R. Curtis, 41, of Morton, who died March 30, were conducted from the Morton High school auditorium Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Reverend E. M. Jennings, pastor of Lubbock Cumberland Presbyterian church, conducted the rites with Masons assisting.

He is survived by his widow, daughter, four brothers, three sisters, and his mother. Services had been delayed by inability of sisters and brothers living in California to get to Morton sooner.

Curtis, former garage owner of Ralls, two years ago moved to Morton, where he owned a garage. He served in the navy in the World war.

Back to Obituary Index