

Morton Funeral Set For Boy Hit By Car

MORTON (Special) — Funeral services are planned Tuesday in the Catholic Church here for Pilaro Charo Jr., 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Charo, farm laborers of near Morton. Hour of services is pending at Singleton Funeral Home.

The child died in the Cochran County Hospital Sunday afternoon after he was backed over by a car driven by his uncle.

Willie Charo, driver of the car, was reported to be visiting the tot's parents to give the condition of another child who was in the hospital. He backed over the child's stomach when departing from the home.

The tot was still alive on arrival at the hospital, but died just a few minutes later. His death brought South Plains traffic fatalities to 89 for the year.
