

Rites Planned Today For Mrs. Theo Wood

Mrs. Theo (Susie) Wood, 73, died about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in Meadowbrook Nursing Home in Fort Worth. She was a resident of Morton for about 20 years.

The funeral was to be at 2 p.m. today in the Brumley Funeral Home Chapel in Burkburnett. Burial was to be in Randlett, Okla.

She is survived by her husband, Theo H. Wood of Fort Worth; a son, Ted of Houston; four daughters, Mrs. O. D. Noland of Yuma, Ariz., Mrs. O. C. Heard of Lubbock, Mrs. Pete Mason of Holiday, and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan of Fort Worth; two brothers, Tom Campbell of Randlett, Okla., and Bill Campbell of Ponca City, Okla.; three sisters, Mrs. H. E. Streater of Bakersfield, Calif., Mrs. M. M. Smith of Bartlesville, Okla., and Mrs. Jim Tribble of Ponca City, Okla.; thirteen grandchildren; and four great grandchildren.

Rites Planned Today For Mrs. Theo Wood

Mrs. Theo (Susie) Wood, 73, died about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in Meadowbrook Nursing Home in Fort Worth. She was a resident of Morton for about 20 years.

The funeral was to be at 2 p.m. today in the Brumley Funeral Home Chapel in Burkburnett. Burial was to be in Randlett, Oklahoma.

She is survived by her husband, Theo H. Wood, of Fort Worth; a son, Ted of Houston; four daughters, Mrs. O. D. Noland of Yuma, Ariz., Mrs. O. C. Heard of Lubbock, Mrs. Pete Mason of Holiday, and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan of Fort Worth; two brothers, Tom Campbell of Randlett, Okla., and Bill Campbell of Ponca City, Okla.; three sisters, Mrs. H. E. Streater of Bakersfield, Calif., Mrs. M. M. Smith of Bartlesville, Okla., and Mrs. Jim Tribble of Ponca City, Okla.; thirteen grandchildren; and four great grandchildren.

Back to Obituary Index