

Publication unknown

Date unknown

From the collection of Oneta Yeary

Ms. Kuykendall died January 19, 1985

Tena Kuykendall

Services for Tena Kuykendall, 79, of Morton were at 2 p.m. Monday at Hammons Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. Duane Knowlton, pastor of First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Wesley Daniel, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Littlefield, officiating.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home.

She died at 12:05 p.m. Saturday at John Knox Medical Center in Lubbock after a brief illness.

She was born in Cloud Chief, Okla. She lived in Morton 33 years. She was a retired beautician. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Texas Beauticians Association. She was a Methodist.

Survivors include a sister, Anna Mae Woody of Littlefield.

Tena Kuykendall

Services for Tena Kuykendall, 79, of Morton were at 2 p.m. Monday at Hammons Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. Duane Knowlton, pastor of First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Wesley Daniel, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Littlefield, officiating.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home.

She died at 12:05 p.m. Saturday at John Knox Medical Center in Lubbock after a brief illness.

She was born in Cloud Chief, Okla. She lived in Morton 33 years. She was a retired beautician. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Texas Beauticians Association. She was a Methodist.

Survivors include a sister, Anna Mae Woody of Littlefield.

Back to Obituary Index